

AES

Atlantic Eye Symposium

Dr. Mark Greve has been in Vitreoretinal practice in Edmonton for 23 years. He is Assistant Clinical Professor at the Department of Ophthalmology at the University of Alberta and Chief of Vitreoretinal Surgery at the Royal Alexandra Hospital. Dr. Greve is Chair of the OR Committee and Chair of the Fellowship Committee. He hales from a small town in Saskatchewan and did his medical school and Ophthalmology residency at the University of Saskatchewan. Dr. Greve completed his Vitreoretinal fellowship at Louisiana State University under the mentorship of Dr. Gholam Peyman.

