

AES

Atlantic Eye Symposium

Dr. Karim Punja graduated from Medical School and Ophthalmology Residency at Queen's University. He completed a Fellowship in Ocular Pathology at the Ottawa Eye Institute and an ASOPRS Fellowship at the University of California, San Diego.

Dr. Punja is a Clinical Associate Professor at the University of Calgary, Department of Surgery. He has a keen interest in teaching and has received the Faculty Teaching award. Dr. Punja is Program Director for the Oculofacial Plastic Surgery Fellowship Program with numerous successful graduates over the years.

As an internationally known expert in the field of Oculofacial Plastic Surgery he is often called upon to lecture and make presentations at national and international meetings. He has been delivering lectures at the AAO over the last 12 years and has authored book chapters and papers in peer-reviewed journals.

