Dr. Gold is an Associate Professor of Neurology, Ophthalmology, Otolaryngology - Head & Neck Surgery, Neurosurgery, Emergency Medicine, and Medicine at The Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine. He is a neurologist with fellowship training in neuro-ophthalmology at the University of Pennsylvania and additional training in neuro-vestibular disorders at Johns Hopkins, and is the director of the Ocular Motor & Vestibular Oto-Neurology Fellowship within the Division of Neuro-Visual and Vestibular Disorders. Dr. Gold maintains an active clinical practice, seeing patients with vestibular and neuro-ophthalmic conditions. He is also heavily involved in the education of residents and fellows, giving frequent lectures on topics related to his subspecialty expertise in addition to leading neuro-ophthalmology/ocular motor bedside teaching rounds. He has received awards for neurology resident teaching and clinical excellence, and for outstanding educational contributions to the Neuro-Ophthalmology Virtual Education Library (through the North American Neuro-Ophthalmology Society) via an ocular motor/vestibular collection (<https://novel.utah.edu/Gold/>). He has also written a Neuro-Ophthalmology & Neuro-Otology case-based textbook, which was published in early 2022.
